Providing URLs in the body of an email is the best way to help us locate content quickly.

4. Information reasonably sufficient to permit us to contact you, such as an address, telephone number, and, if available, an email address.
5. A statement that you have a good faith belief that use of the material in the manner complained of is not authorized by the copyright owner, its agent, or the law.

You may send your DMCA notification to our Designated Agent via email or mail using the contact information provided above.

3 Upon Receipt of a Valid DMCA Notice

Upon receiving a valid DMCA takedown notice, we will:

1. Promptly remove or disable access to the allegedly infringing material.
2. Make a good-faith effort to notify the user who posted the content that it has been removed or disabled.
3. Provide the user with a copy of the takedown notice and inform them that they may submit a counter-notice if they believe the content was removed in error.
4. Take reasonable steps to promptly notify the complaining party that we have removed or disabled access to the material.

We aim to process valid DMCA notices within 5-10 business days of receipt.

4 Counter-Notification Process

If you believe that your content was removed due to a mistake or misidentification, you may submit a counter-notice to our Designated Agent. To be effective, a counter-notice must include the following information:

1. Your physical or electronic signature.
2. Identification of the material that has been removed or to which access has been disabled and the location at which the material appeared before it was removed or access to it was disabled.

4. Your name, address, and telephone number, and a statement that you consent to the jurisdiction of Federal District Court for the judicial district in which your address is located, or if your address is outside of the United States, for any judicial district in which krisiyotam.com may be found, and that you will accept service of process from the person who provided the original notification or an agent of such person.

5 Upon Receipt of a Valid Counter-Notice

Upon receiving a valid counter-notice, we will:

1. Promptly provide the complaining party with a copy of the counter-notice.
2. Inform the complaining party that we will restore the removed material in 10-14 business days unless we receive notice that the complaining party has filed a court action seeking to restrain the user from engaging in infringing activity related to the removed material.
3. Restore the removed material between 10 and 14 business days after receiving the counter-notice, unless we receive notice of legal action from the complaining party.

6 Repeat Infringer Policy

In accordance with the DMCA, we have adopted a policy to terminate, in appropriate circumstances, users who are deemed to be repeat infringers. We may also, at our sole discretion, limit access to krisiyotam.com and/or terminate the accounts of any users who infringe any intellectual property rights of others, whether or not there is any repeat infringement.

7 False Claims and Misrepresentations

Filing a false DMCA notice or counter-notice may have serious legal consequences. Under Section 512(f) of the DMCA, any person who knowingly materially misrepresents that material is infringing, or that it was removed or disabled by mistake or misidentification, shall be liable for any damages, including costs and attorneys' fees, incurred by the alleged infringer or the copyright owner as a result of such misrepresentation.

8 Good Faith Belief

Before submitting a DMCA notice, consider whether the use of your copyrighted material might be protected by the "fair use" doctrine. Fair use permits limited use of copyrighted material without authorization for purposes such as criticism, comment, news reporting, teaching, scholarship, or research.

9 Standard Technical Measures
